A TWO-LINE AD SELLS AUTOMOBILE

Herald Classified Columns Sell Cars as Well as Get Positions and Find Employment.

One two-line ad of an automobile for sale in The Herald classified which ran two days last week, brought more than 50 replies, resulted in immediate sale, and the answers are still coming, one being received by The Herald yesterday from Pima, Ariz. All of southwest Texas is reached by The Herald, and in the more than 70,000 readers each day there is bound to be some one who wants what you have to sell or can fill the position you have vacant.

In yesterday's paper is an advertisement from a chef who seeks a place, and a half dozen jobs are open to plain cooks. One advertiser wants to trade Oklahoma lots for El Paso property which means a new citizen and a book-keeper with ten years experience runs a six line offer to go anywhere a position may be vacant. A second hand cash register is wanted, and there is an offer to sell two sheet iron stoves and a supply of blankets. A heavy delivery horse is wanted by a local firm, and another man is in the market for a team not over seven years old to weigh about 1000 pounds each.

A companion to an invalid where the work will be light and who will be content with reasonable compensation can find an opportunity by calling phone 1458; and a chance to buy an interest in an established mercantile business is made possible because the owner must leave the city. From Clint, Texas, comes a want ad for a cook, or if an El Paso position is preferred a woman for general housework is wanted at 1000 Prospect. Read the want ads for the news in them. Probably you have a half dozen partly formed wants back in your mind, and the best sort of an opportunity or bargain may be in today's paper. If what you need is not advertised phone One-one-five or come to The Herald office. For one time the cost is two-bits on an average. If the ad is repeated the expense per insertion is less.

COMMONS ADJOURNS FOLLOWING RIOT

King George Suggests Vacation Until Monday—McNeill Apologizes for Harboring Book at Churchill.

London, Eng., Nov. 14.—Following the riot of last night the house of commons this afternoon adjourned until Monday, acting on the suggestion which is believed to have emanated from king George himself.

The proposal was made by speaker Lowther, who intimated that it would be advisable "for the house to take further time to consider the points at issue" between the two factions in regard to the home rule measure.

A graceful apology from Ronald McNeill, the Unionist member who hurled a book at Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, during the disturbance, helped to cool the atmosphere today. Churchill accepted the apology with equal heartiness.

Speaker Lowther in his remarks suggested that the members take a period for relaxation and emphasized the undesirability of parliament departing from its established precedents. He could not help thinking, he said, that some solution of the difficulty might be found which would be acceptable to all parties and would be more in accordance with precedent.

CLOUDCROFT HOME IS GIVEN Y. W. C. A.

Three Lots on Boardwalk Donated by Company and Building Will Be Erected for Summer Use.

El Paso working girls are to be given an opportunity to spend their summer vacations at Cloudercroft at a nominal expense.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. Thursday morning it was announced that the Cloudercroft company, through H. J. Simmons, has offered the association three lots on the boardwalk on which to build a summer home for the girls. A vote of thanks was given for this donation.

Mrs. H. R. Stevens has been appointed chairman of a committee on finance and building and it is proposed to erect a home suitable for the accommodation of from 15 to 20 girls, with a large living room to be used by all. It is pointed out that the railroad fare to Cloudercroft during the summer is low and with low hotel rates many girls could spend their vacations there, who, under present conditions are unable to do so.

MCCLUNG RESIGNS AS TREASURER OF U. S.

Counting and Transfer of Money and Securities Will Be Largest Financial Transaction in History.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 14.—Announcement of the resignation of Lee McClung, as treasurer of the United States was made by president Taft today. McClung tendered his resignation to the president at a conference at the executive mansion today and its acceptance was later announced by the president from the executive office with the expression of regret that Mr. McClung resigned voluntarily. It is believed that Carmel Thompson, now private secretary to the president, will succeed him.

The treasurer declined to discuss his retirement in any way today, but it was rumored that his resignation came as the result of continued friction with secretary MacVeagh.

The resignation of Mr. McClung means that the money and securities for which the treasurer is responsible must be actually counted and receipted for.
